QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER

CHOCTAW COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY CHOCTAW COUNTY, OKLAHOMA

VOLUME 1, ISSUE 3

JULY 2006

EDITOR'S NOTE

Well, this the second quarterly that I have created for you. I do hope that you are all enjoying them.

Hopefully, you have noticed the new featured family section of the quarterly. Anyone with ties to Choctaw County can submit their ancestors information to be featured in an upcoming issue.

I would like to request that anyone with suggestions or ideas about what you would like to see in your quarterly issues to contact me. All suggestions are welcome.

Anyone willing to contribute information, copies of photographs, family bibles, old letters, old newspapers, genealogy books, any items that are no longer wanted or needed, please donate them to the Choctaw County Genealogical Society for preservation.

If you don't want rid of items (such as pictures, letters, etc.), but would still like to contribute CCGS is willing to take digital photographs of your items. Just contact me, April Makerney at 580-326-5562 or amakerney@yahoo.com to set up a time at your convenience.

Also, I want to be sure that everyone understands that the Indian Deeds are estate records of Full-Blood Choctaw Indian's; however, not everyone listed in the index is full-blood or even Indian for that matter. They were simply listed in the record. For example, L. R. Anglin is listed in the 1909 index, but to my knowledge is not Indian. He purchased an interest in a full-blood Indian's estate. Hence he is listed in the index. I hope this alleviates any confusion.

WHAT'S NEW

The Choctaw County Genealogical Society has recently acquired over 100 new tax record books from the Choctaw County Tax Assessor's office. These books all need to be photocopied, resized, and every-name indexed for use as new publications for CCGS. Anyone who would like to contribute some time to help, please contact me, April Makerney at 326-5562 or amakerney@yahoo.com for details.

CCGS has also acquired over 70 teacher record books that are currently being transcribed into new CCGS publications.

Our goal is to have as many new publications ready for purchase along with our currently available publications in time for the Choctaw Electric gathering on September 30th.

There are many records at the court house that have yet to be transcribed. If anyone is willing to contribute their time it would be greatly appreciated by CCGS and anyone interested in the records of Choctaw County.

Genealogy Humor

Dear Abby: I have always wanted to have my family history traced, but I can't afford to spend a lot of money to do it. Any suggestions? ~ Sam in California ~

Dear Sam: Yes. Run for public office.

Chief Moshulatubbee Amosholi-T-vbi "Warrior Who Perseveres" Born 1770

Chief Moshulatubbee of Northern district, Choctaw Nation in Mississippi, received his name as a young warrior. He was dignified in bearing, of fine physique, steady and thoughtful in disposition. As Chief he was noted for his orders banning liquor traffic and drinking in his county. He strongly favored education, and a mission school (ABCFM) was located at this prairie village near the Natchez Trace in 1824. Moshulatubbee was one of the three head chiefs who signed the early Choctaw treaties with the United States, including that at Dancing Rabbit Creek in 1830, which provided for the removal of the Choctaws from Mississippi. He had high hopes in coming west with his people in 1832, and made his new home in LeFlore County. He died at his home on August 30, 1838 from smallpox and was buried nearby, his grave covered in unmarked stones. The region from the Arkansas River to the Winding Stair Mountains was called Moshulatubbee District in law books of the Choctaw Nation, 1834 to 1907.

Interview #12246

My mother was orphaned when a baby and we were never quite sure how much Indian she was but always thought she was one-half Choctaw and one-half Chickasaw. Benny Hunter, father of Judge Thomas W. Hunter, raised her and gave her a fine education. I was given the entire name of one of her first missionary teachers, Miss Susanne Mac-Beth.

There was a large family of us, so Father built us a little school house all our own in the yard and Mother taught us until I was nine when she died. I attended Oak Cliff College in Dallas and Paris Female College in Paris, Texas. I was attending that college in Paris when it burned. Then I began attending summer Normals in the Indian Territory and was licensed to teach school. I taught five years. I had taught my second term at Wheelock Academy when I was married to Dr. Ben L. Denison, in 1902. He was the physician for the Academy. I met him there.

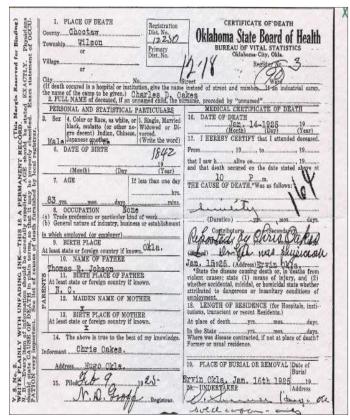

When we teachers would leave the Academy for the summer, we would try to find summer homes for nearly all of the orphans there. If we could not find homes for them we would take them to our own homes for the summer and one summer I left one at my father's home and took two to Jones Academy with me. That was where a summer Normal was being held. Board, room and tuition for a four weeks term was only $12.00 so it was not so expensive to take a little girl along and it made her happy. We never liked to leave the children at Wheelock for the summer, it was so lonely for them with all the teachers gone.

I am the mother of 6 children, four of whom are living. Harry L. Denison would be 32 years old if living. He was drowned two years ago. Roy died when he was a baby. Hilliard is a Civil Engineer in New Mexico. My daughter, Mrs. Juanita Jenkins, lives in Ohio. Wyota Sue, another daughter, is now visiting in New Mexico. My baby eighteen years old is attending high school at Bozier City, Louisiana.

My husband, Dr. Ben L. Denison died a couple of years ago and is buried in the Denison cemetery which was donated to the city of Idabel by his brother, John Denison.

My father was Charles D. Oakes, the oldest of the children of Thomas Oakes and Harriet Everidge Oakes. There was a large family of my mother's children, then she died when I was nine and Father remarried and raised another family. He died about 1914 and was buried in the family graveyard at the old home place at Goodwater.

Another thing I had almost forgotten was that my mother taught Sunday School in our little private school house just as regularly as Sunday came around.

Deceased Pioneer Was Firm Believer in Law and Order

Charles D. Oakes, pioneer resident of Choctaw county who died January 14 at his home near Ervin, southeast of here, at the age of 83, was firm believer in law and order, according to those who were intimately acquainted with him. While this section was still almost a wilderness, he made many trips on horse back, with his old-time cross back saddle pockets, to attend federal court at Fort Smith.

"He possessed many, if not all, of the qualities that make a good man," it was declared. "He had rather give than receive, never turned away the hungry, was kind hearted and always ready to lend a helping hand. He believed in God, professed his belief and hope of an Eternal Home."

Mr. Oakes passed away peacefully, without a struggle. Funeral services were conducted by the Reverend Mr. Hawley, Presbyterian minister, at the family home Thursday evening at 2 o'clock.

Charles D. Oakes was born April 15, 1841. He served four years in the Confederate army during the Civil war. He was married in 1874 to Miss Judith Belvin and settled on the old homestead where he remained until the end came. Four of ten children born to that union are living. In 1889 he was married to Miss Margaret Phillips. Eight of eleven children born to that union are living. He was the father of 21 children, of whom 12 survive. He had 39 living grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Surviving Mr. Oakes are five brothers and two sisters. They are: T. E., G. W., S. L., L. W., and J. E. "Dock" Oakes, Mrs. J. B. Jeter and Mrs. T. D. Hibben, the youngest, who is now 62 years old.

Mr. Oakes' father died at the age of 92 and his mother at the age of 74. --Hugo News.

You Know That You Are An Addicted Genealogist When...

When you brake for libraries.

If you get locked in a library overnight and you never even notice.

When you hyperventilate at the sight of an old cemetery.

If you'd rather browse in a cemetery than a shopping mall.

When you think every home should have a microfilm reader.

If you'd rather read census schedules than a good book.

When you know every town clerk in your state by name.

If town clerks lock the doors when they see you coming.

When you are more interested in what happened in 1695 than 1995.

If you store your clothes under the bed and your closet is carefully stacked with notebooks and journals.

When Savage, Torrey, and Pope are household names, but you can't remember what you call your dog.

If you can pinpoint Harrietsham, Hawkhurst, Kent on a map of England, but can't locate Topeka, Kansas.

When all your correspondence begins "Dear Cousin."

If you've traced every one of your ancestral lines back to Adam and Eve, have it fully documented, and still don't want to quit.

The Laws of Genealogy

The document containing evidence of the missing link in your research invariably will be lost due to fire, flood, or war.

The keeper of the vital records you need will just have been insulted by another genealogist.

Your great, great grandfather's obituary states that he died leaving no issue of record.

The town clerk you wrote in desperation, and finally convinced to give to you the information you need, can't write legibly, and doesn't have a copying machine.

The will you need is in the safe on board the "Titanic."

The spelling of your European ancestor's name bears no relationship to its current spelling or pronunciation.

That ancient photograph of four relatives, one of whom is your progenitor, carries the names of the other three.

Copies of old newspapers have holes which only occur on last names.

No one in your family tree ever did anything noteworthy, always rented property, was never sued, and was never named in wills.

You learned that great aunt Matilda's executor just sold her life's collection of family genealogical materials to a flea market dealer "somewhere in New York City."

Yours is the ONLY last name not found among the three billion in the world-famous Mormon archives in Salt Lake City.

Ink fades and paper deteriorates at a rate inversely proportional to the value of the data recorded.

The 37-volume, sixteen-thousand-page history of your county of origin isn't indexed.

The critical link in your family tree is named "Smith."
