

MISS "BABE" MARBUT TO REPRESENT HUGO

To Compete for "Queen of Highway" at Meeting At Talihina
The Hugo Daily News June 7, 1935 - transcribed by Ron Henson

Miss "Babe" Marbut has been selected to represent Hugo, Okla., at the U.S. Highway 271 and Allied Highways convention at Talihina, June 9-11 for the title of Highway Beauty queen for 1935 and 1936 who is to be selected by state governors at the Governor's Ball, one of the feature attractions of the three-day program.

Besides the Highway queen, five maids of honor will be chosen. Talihina will be represented by Miss Opal Gann, who as Miss Talihina, will be "Queen of the Day," until the real queen is selected. Miss Talihina will ride in a beautiful float in the rodeo parade, accompanied by Misses Inez Smith of Panama, Vivian Harrison of Pine Valley and Mary Francis Anderson of Talihina. They will have a box at the rodeo, be introduced to the governors and photographed with them.

Other cities and their representatives are: Poteau, Madge Pope; Paris, Francis Cavnar; Clayton, Clara Fox; Fort Smith, Lovita Williams; Mena, Freddie Harris; Atoka, Dorothy Orr; McAlester, Dorothy Jones; Norman, Bernice Baker; Heavener, Hazel Lyles; Glenwood, Halley Cook; Antlers, Elizabeth Lott; Tuskahoma, Joan Chapman; Corpus Christi, Texas, Cassie Franklin, and Idabel; Margaret Spaulding.

A number of cities have notified Jack Delysle, supervising director of the convention, that they will agree on a candidate and bring her with their delegations on the night of June 10.
